To
All the Principals of Affiliated Colleges
University of Delhi

Sub:- Request for considering vocational subjects for admission to Under Graduate level courses from the session 2012-13.

Dear Sir/Madam,

As you are aware the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) is presently offering a total of 34 vocational courses under 7 sectors (as per the list enclosed) at Senior Secondary level, in order to fulfil the emerging needs of the market by focusing on employability skills.

Further, it is pertinent to mention here that University of Delhi vide its letter no. Aca.I/CBSE/2012/54 dated 04/05/2012 has decided to add following vocational subjects in the list of its existing vocational courses allowed by the University for Admission to its undergraduate courses w.e.f the academic session 2012-13.

1. Financial Market Management
2. Healthcare Sciences
3. Geospatial Technology
4. Food Production
5. Food & Beverage Services
6. Mass Media Studies and Media Production

University has also agreed to include other subjects offered as a part of the vocational courses, which has been duly reflected in the admission bulletin of University of Delhi for the year 2012-13.

Therefore, I am to request you kindly to give the necessary direction to the admission committee of your esteem college to consider the marks of vocational subjects in best four, wherever applicable, so that the pass out students (from vocational streams) is considered eligible for admission to Under Graduate courses .

With due Regards.

Yours Sincerely

Dr. Biswajit Saha
Programme Officer & I/C Director
(Vocational & Edusat)
