Short Term Re-Tender for Conducting Online Exam i.e. Computer Based Test (CBT) for Professional Entrance Exam (PEE)-2012

The Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE), an Autonomous Organisation under Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India invites technical & commercial bids for conducting online exam i.e. Computer Based Test (CBT) for various Professional Entrance Examinations being conducted by the Board. Interested Service Agencies involved in similar work or capable of undertaking such work may send their bids both Technical and Commercial bids in sealed envelopes.

The agencies who had applied in response to earlier tender notice for the same work (the last date of which was 21.10.2011) need not apply again unless they want to revise their proposals. Their earlier proposals will be considered against this notice also. In case of revision, fresh tender must be submitted. However, the EMD and tender processing fees deposited earlier by such agencies will be considered for their revised proposal which implies that they need not submit EMD and tender fees again..

The tender document, objective, scope of work, timeline, information to be furnished by the agency, evaluation criteria for selection and other relevant details are available on CBSE website <http://cbse.nic.in>

Queries if any and bids shall be addressed to:
